

Florida Epoxy Limited Warranty

Florida Epoxy Shall Warranty Its Work Against Flaking And Peeling For A Period Of 2 Years From The Invoice Date Providing The Job Has Been Paid In Full To Terms. Florida Epoxy Cannot Warranty An Existing Coating Adhesion To The Concrete Or Any Work That We Have Not Performed. This Warranty Applies To Flaking Or Chipping Coatings Caused As A Direct Result Of Product Failure. The Sole And Exclusive Maximum Liability Of Florida Epoxy Under This Warranty Will Be At The Option Of Florida Epoxy, To Patch Failing Area/Areas Or Recoat All Coated Areas Florida Epoxy Deems Advisable.

The Express Warranties Set Forth In This Contract Are In Lieu Of All Other Warranties, Expressed Or Implied, Including, Without Limitation, Any Warranties Of Merchantability Or Fitness For A Particular Purpose.

Customer Agrees That Its Exclusive Remedies, And The Entire Liability Of Florida Epoxy With Respect To The Specified Floor Coatings, Are Set Forth In This Agreement. Florida Epoxy Will Not Be Liable To Customer For Any Damages, Including Any Lost Profits Or Other Incidental Or Consequential Damages Arising Out Or Its Use Of The Floor Coating Or The Breach Of Any Warranty.

Conditions Not Warranted

Hydrostatic pressure (Hydrostatic pressure is caused from moisture being present underneath the concrete slab. Hydrostatic pressure can cause blisters, bubbles and other effects in a resinous coating).

Sub-surface contaminants (Oil or other contaminants that can come up from within the concrete slab) could cause coating failure.

Deficient Concrete (concrete that breaks apart) and exhibits reduced integrity. Non-skid will wear out over time and will need to be re-applied.

Florida Epoxy accepts no responsibility as to the time or amount of wearing. The customer is responsible to maintain its own safe limits for slip resistance throughout the life of the floor coating application.
